

Around the World Memory

Print and then cut out the cards. Place them face down as shown. A player turns up two cards. If they match, the player keeps them and turns up two more until they don't match. In the end, the player with the most cards wins.

✂

